

Board Focus

Lesley Avery

Lesley has spent 17 years as a classroom teacher and 7 years in the publishing industry. This and being the mother of a child with an intellectual disability has given her a passion for disabilities. She is also an active member of her child's school P&C. Lesley is interested in her community and first volunteered when she was 19. She enjoys walking, cycling and jazzercise.

