

Board Focus

Pierre Huetter

Pierre Huetter joined the Canberra YMCA board in 2011 after many years of public service in the Commonwealth and ACT Governments. Pierre worked in a number of areas across government, serving in policy and corporate roles in the fields of international development, planning and major project facilitation.

In more recent years Pierre has taken his public sector project management skills into the private sector where he now works as a project manager in the construction field.

